GAME PLAY

Perseverance may be the overwhelming emotion game players will feel as they move ZYZZYX up and down horizontal rows of alternating moving blocks to gather presents which will satisfy his love, Lolo — whose affection is not easily captured. ZYZZYX's vulnerability increases (as he collects gifts as well as points) not only because of Lolo's unapproachable attitude, but because of obstacles such as rattifiers trying to put an end to ZYZZYX's quest for Lolo's love and affection.

Intelligent as the rattifiers may be, there are two defenses ZYZZYX can use to outsmart the destructive creatures. ZYZZYX can block himself within a block when he sees an approaching rattifier or ZYZZYX can move into the space where there is a gold helmet. The gold helmet intensifies ZYZZYX's goal to reach Lolo by allowing ZYZZYX to use the helmet to enclose a rattifier or break through one block which is obstructing ZYZZYX's course towards Lolo.

As Inevitable as Lolo appears, Lolo is overjoyed by ZYZZYX's success to retrieve enough presents and the whistles resoundingly to let ZYZZYX know. After ZYZZYX's triumphant deed for love, ZYZZYX becomes invincible, enabling him to elude the rattifiers by impersonating them within their spaces.

Other dangers testing ZYZZYX's skillful maneuvering are falling bombs, rising missiles and cracked blocks, each capable of disintegrating ZYZZYX.

As an added attraction, when a game player completes each level, there are animated cartoons depicting ZYZZYX's passionate desire to impress his love for Lolo, and delightful music throughout the game leaves the player humming and their foot tapping.
